RICE MURDER MYSTERY THE FIRST TANGIBLE CLUE

Bag Containing Six Dead Chicken Found on Victim's Premises.

Cleveland, O., August 7.—The first tangible clue to the mystery surrounding the murder of William L. Rice, the millionaire attorney who was found shot and stabbed in front of his home Friday night, is claimed to have been discovered to-day. Private detectives employed on the case produced to-day a bag containing six dead chickens which they found in the shrubbery about 100 yards from where Mr. Rice's body was discovered.

theory is advanced that Mr. The theory is advanced that Mr. Rice, on his way home, encountered chicken thieves and was killed in a fight following his attempt to arrest them. The police, however, still refuse to accept any such explanation except that of murder for revenge. Mr. Rice was a militant financier with large interests involving mulions of dollars, and, according to the police, a sufficient motive for his murder can be found in the influence which he exerted in the business world.

Milford, Conn., Aug. 7.—In attempting to pass an automobile drawn up beside the road for repairs, two machines, one owned and driven by a Mr. Tuttle of New Haven, with two women as occupan's, and a car with the New York registry number 12031, containing two men and two women beside the chauffeur, collided head-on at Beards Corner tonight, hirowing the occupants of the New Haven car on to the road and overturning the New York car, pinning the occupants underneath. Those in the Tuttle car picked themselves up and getting into the machine None of the authorities are optimistic in regard to the solution of the crime. Chief of Police Kohler, who is not directly interested because the murder took place outside the city limits, has expressed a definite opinion that only accident will reveal the murderers because of the absence of any genuine evidence upon which the police may work.

Mrs. Rice and her four daughters arrived in Cleveland to-day from Massachusetts. They went directly home of Walter Beard, where it was found that one of the chauffeur's wrists had been bruised and shaken up, but not seriously injured. They refused to give their names, and all but one, a Mrs. Standish, of Riverside, were attended by a physician. Mrs. Standish refused the physician's services and telephoned to a friend in New York for treatment. The party returned to their homes in a machine which was sent on from Bridgeport. NO CATHOLIC DEMONSTRATION

Grave Incident Saturday Evenin "Death to Spain! Long Live the

San Sebastian, August 7.—The government's rigorous measures and the formal renunciation by the Catholic junts of the threatened demonstration in this city insured comparative tranquility to-day and a largely attended bull fight was the chief incident of the day.

Cavalry and Infantry Patrol Streets From daylight the streets were patrolled by cavalry, infantry and gendarmes, while heavy bodies of troops were held in readiness in the barracks at Miramar palace, where the queen mother and the royal children are in residence. "Death to Spain."

The gravest incident occurred last evening when groups of Catholics assembled, shouting:
"Death to Spain. Long live to

"Death to Spain. Long live the pope."

Thousands of indignant people rushed towards the manifestants, and only the personal intervention of the governor at the head of a platoon of police preveented an attack. Nearly 150 arrests were made.

Many amusing scenes were witnessed. Priests leading trudging bands of peasants took to their heels when they found the city in the possession of the military. The peasants, all their courage gone, were disarmed and easily persuaded to return to their homes. In some cases the soldiers were compelled to supply the poor people, who had come into the city to rail at the government, with food.

Masked a Carlist Plot.

The local authorities are convinced that the aCtholle demonstration masked a Carlist plot. Catholics are extremely indignant at the government's repressive measures. Senor Urguljo, the chief organizer of the movement, sald to-day that the purpose of the manifestation was peaceful. There were to be no speeches and those taking part were to be unarmed. But, he said, when she government treated the matter as if it were civil war, he had called off the manifestation to prevent bloodshed. He said that it was their intention later to take part in peaceful manifestations at Pamplons, in the province of Navarre and at Vitoria, in Atavia, to prove that the anticlerical policy of the government was opposed by the entire Spanish people. "Even the queen mother is bitterly hostile to it," he added.

Monks Active in Agitation.

The authorities declare that the monks have taken an active part in fomenting the agitation, and it is charged that they have distributed arms among the people.

Optimistic Feeling at the Vatican.

Rome, Aug. 7.—The feeling at the vatican today is optimistic. Hope is entertained that an understanding with entertained that an understanding with the Spanish government will soon be reached. It is pointed out by the vatican that Premier Canalejas must be grateful to the papacy for restraining its followers from disorders which might have led to civil war.

The vatican and Cardinal Merry del

ful relations in the affairs of the penin-Another reason for the conciliators attitude of the vatican is found in the fact that the organizers of the proposed demonstrations are for the most part Carlists, and any movement might eventually take on a revolutionary and eventually take on a revolutionary and anti-dynastic character, which the vatican is determined shall be absolutely excluded from the present question.

A semi-official communication issued by the vatican today says that the relations with Portugal are normal. A new Portuguese ambassador to the Holy See has not been appointed, it is explained, because of the recent change in the cabinet at Lisbon.

CAPTURED UN OCCUM FLATS

Crowd Was Chazing Jean Conneyier of Voluntown - Constable Lambert Brings Him to Lockup.

The "Baltic wildman," who was reported about a week ago, was brought into police headquarters on Sunday afternoon at 12:45 o'clock by Constable Gus Lambert of Occum, who secured him on the Occum flats Sunday morning about 10 o'clock, where the "wild man" was being chased along the road by a hig crowd of boys. He proved to be Jean Connoyler, a native of Voluntown, who is well known to the Norwich police, having been before the city court for vagrancy.

Connoyler's ragge! clothes and dirty and unshaven face gave him some claim to the title of "wild man," but he was a very mild-mannered one. When seen by boys in the woods near the Occum flats on Sunday he ran, and they started after him. The crowd grew with the report that the fugitive was either the "Baltic wild man" or an escaped inmate from the state hospital, until a large number of men and boys were chasing the The "Baltic wildman," who was re-about 6.10 o'clock Saturday afternoon Mr. Cook, who conducts the Fort Hill farm in Mohegan, was driving out of a hayfield into the highway near the Opperman place. The troislept in the outhouse at the Versalles depot and in the woods.

More than a week ago the presence of the "wild man" was first reported. In a wild man was first reported. In a woods belonging to Frank Barber of Plain Hill, in consequence of which it was said, that all the berrying parties of the neighborhood had been canceled. With the "wild man" now safely under lock and key, the region around Baltic may be considered safe again.

NEW LONDON SHIP

AND ENGINE COMPANY.

In ear the Opperman place. The trolley track is on the west side of the road and the hayfield west of the track. With a good-sized load of hay on his wagon Mr. Cooke had driven on his wagon Mr. Cooke had driven on the barney, which is only three or four feet away from the track, over which he had driven his horses, when the trolley came around the curve at the top of the long Melant and came down the grade at a fast rate of speed. The breaks seemed to fail to work in time, for the car crashed into the rear of the hay-cart and carried the wagon down the hill 30 feet before coming to a stop.

$500,000 Capital for New Plant at Groton ton Yard.

New London business men held an enthusiastic meeting Saturday evening at the Crocker house, at which Captain T. A. Scott presided, and some of the detail of the new company which is to take the shipbuilding plant at Groton was explained.

It is to be capitalized at $500,000, and to be known as the New London Ship and Engine sompany. It will employ about 150 men at first, and in five years will be employing 2,000, it is expected. It will manufacture torpedo engines, torpedos and air compressors. Work is expected to start at once.

The force of the collision threw Mr. Avery out and his forcible impact with the ground resulted in a broken collar bone, a scalp wound, lwo badly bruised shoulders, a sprained wrist and a wrenched neck. Mr. Cook was taken home in an automobile by a man named Sheffield, and Saturday night was attended by a Norwich physician, who also made two visits on Sunday and on the last trip found his patient comfortable. The two horses were thrown, dragged and cut. The load of hay was overturned and the wagon was a wreck. The cur that did the damage left Norwich for New London at 5.45. J. W. Rogers, Jr., was the motorman.

The up car found the track blocked by the wagon and hay which had falen over it after the other car had gone by. Motorman Dexter Church and Conductor Fred Tourtellotte, with the assistance of passengers, pushed the debris to one side, where it was still lying Sunday.

TARVIA FOR BROADWAY Plan to Save Water-Street Commis-sioner Lillibridge Will Have Tarvis

Here in About a Week.

A cost of tarvia is to be adminstered to Broadway, following the vote taken at the last council meeting to use oil instead of water on the streets. The tarvia has been ordered and is due to get here in about a week's time. Upon its arrival Street Commissioner Errol C. Lillibridge will begin its application at the Soldiers' monument, working south the length of Broadway. The tarvia can be sprinkled on the road by means of a watering cart, and the job should be over with in a week or less. As fast as the oil is put on it will be covered over with a sprinkling of sand, the sand for this purpose having already been deposited at the park near the Founders' monument, which under the action of the weather is beginning to disintegrate noticeably. The sand will serve to prevent the spattering of mud, which is one of the most objectionable features about newly oiled roads. There has been dust aplenty along Broadway this season, and the oil is is hoped and expected will result in a marked improvement.
